

Florida Gulf Coast University
School of Resort & Hospitality Management
Camp Pineapple

The School of Resort & Hospitality Management at Florida Gulf Coast University (FGCU) will be hosting Camp Pineapple on June 6 – June 9, 2022. This program is designed to expose high school students, who are interested in a career in hospitality, to the various aspects of the industry and university life.

Students will spend two nights in FGCU dorms and one night at a local hotel. During the day, students will participate in various educational activities. This will include visits to hospitality businesses and guest speakers from the SWFL market. Faculty/Staff and Resort & Hospitality Management students will supervise all events.

There is a $50 application fee charge for students to participate in the program (must be paid by cash, check, or a money order). Students must be at least 16 years old and presently a sophomore or junior (in coming junior and seniors for school year 2022-2023). Students must be recommended by their teacher and/or their guidance counselor. The application due date is Tuesday, March 15, 2022. The program is restricted to 25 students. Applicants will be chosen by the FGCU RHM Selection Committee based on the completeness of the application and required personal statement. The accepted participants will be notified by April 1, 2022.
