

Ad hoc Task Force for Excellence Awards

The Task Force for Excellence Awards will review and recommend to the Faculty Senate any needed revisions to the guidelines for the following Faculty Excellence Awards:

- Faculty Teaching Award
- Faculty Scholarship Award
- Faculty Individual Service award
- Faculty Team Service Award
- Faculty Advising Award

Composition: 3 to 5 members, based on the number of members of the Faculty Senate who volunteer for the task force. If more than 5 volunteer, the President of the Faculty Senate will choose 5 members so as maximize the number of academic units represented.

Charge: the charge of the task force is to

- review the changes to the Excellence Award guidelines suggested by last year's award committees, as well as data from last year on the number of nominees for each award,
- decide on any recommendations for changes to the guidelines;
- submit proposed amended guideline documents to the Faculty Senate in time to be introduced at the Nov 5, 2010 meeting.

Recommendations need not be based solely on the reports from last year's award committees; however, the task force needs to complete its charge in a timely manner.
