I am ordering a new textbook edition for this course for the following reason(s)

The ~~current~~ edition previously used is no longer being published

This edition has more current information than the earlier edition previously used for this course

This edition presents information in a more comprehensible manner than the previous edition used for this course.

This edition of the textbook represents a closer match with the goals/content and/or assessment requirements and strategies of the course to which it is to be assigned than the previous edition used for this course.

Review of Open Access Textbook Availability

I have considered the use of an open access textbook for this course but could not identify one that meets the needs of the course to the same extent as the textbook to be used.

Use of Course Bundle or Packet

I do not intend to use a course bundle/packet for this course.

I intend to use a course bundle/packet for this course.

I intend to use all elements of the course bundle/packet assigned for this course.

__I plan to use only select elements of the course bundle/packet assigned for this course because the publisher makes it impossible to purchase discrete parts of the bundle.
