Adjunct Faculty Teaching Excellence Award: Adjunct Faculty with at least two semesters of teaching experience at FGCU are eligible for this award. Semesters of teaching do not need to be consecutive in order to meet eligibility.

Award

- Each faculty or instructor award recipient receives a monetary increase to his/her base pay. The adjunct award recipient will receive a monetary award.
- Each award recipient receives a reserved parking space for the upcoming academic year.
- Each award recipient receives a medallion on a blue ribbon signifying teaching excellence. The medallion may be worn at commencement and other academic events.
- Each award recipient receives a teaching excellence certificate.
- Award recipients' names are engraved on a general Teaching Excellence Award plaque that is placed in the Provost's office. This plaque includes the names of all prior award recipients.
- Each of the five award recipients presents at a program on teaching excellence that is scheduled during the next academic year. This program is open to the campus community. This presentation is the centerpiece of a day that is dedicated to honoring those individuals and celebrating teaching excellence at FGCU.

Nomination Process

Teaching Excellence Award criteria are announced by the Provost's Office at the beginning of the academic year. The Provost's Office issues an official call for nominations by the end of September. All nominations shall be submitted to the Provost's Office by the third Friday in November. Nominations must come from individuals with direct knowledge of the nominee's qualifications in teaching. Nominations from chairs and deans are encouraged. Previous teaching award winners are not eligible to receive a teaching award in the same category for a period of five years.

The one-page nomination letter must include:

- How the nominator knows the nominee (relationship between the nominator and nominee).
- How long the nominator has known the nominee.
- How the nominee meets the award criteria.

Documentation

Candidates for the teaching award prepare a teaching portfolio. ~~The deadline for submission is Teaching portfolios are submitted to the Provost's Office~~ by 9:00 a.m. on the first Monday in February. ~~All portfolio materials must be submitted in a uniform 1-inch binder that is provided by the Provost's Office.~~ All documentation ~~needs to~~must be single-spaced for consistency. Portfolio materials should be prepared and submitted labeled and organized as follows:

- ~~Table of contents~~
- Letter of nomination (copy provided by the Provost's Office)
- A bulleted list of pertinent activities related to teaching (single-spaced, 2 pages maximum)
- Reflection of professional growth and development over time in area of teaching (single-spaced, 3 pages maximum)
- Description of a teaching innovation used in a course (single-spaced, 1 page maximum)
- Current vitae
- Sample syllabus
- Three letters of support.
 - Two letters must be peer evaluations during the current or previous academic year of teaching style and effectiveness for on campus as well as distance learning, if applicable. Details regarding the date of the classroom observation and the length of observation need to be included in the peer evaluation.
 - One peer evaluation must be from a faculty member teaching in a different college within FGCU.
- FGCU student SPoI evaluations for the most recent academic year. This would include Fall, Spring, and Summer (if available).

Candidates are asked to create separate digital PDF files for each item above and upload them through the online submission form. ~~Candidates must also submit their portfolio including all the aforementioned materials in digital format. Materials should be scanned into a .pdf file and submitted with the portfolio through Canvas, the University's Learning Management System. Candidates are asked to scan or combine all scanned materials into a single .pdf and submit as such.~~ Items that cannot be scanned into a file, e.g. books, videos, works of art, etc. can be submitted in the traditional format to the Provost's Office and should be mentioned in the digital portfolio.

Members of the selection committee observe the nominees' teaching. Nominees who teach Distance Learning courses supply the course URL to the selection committee for evaluating web-based teaching.

Selection Committee

The teaching excellence award selection committee convenes in ~~January~~December. Once convened by the Provost's Office, the committee will elect a chair from committee membership. The chair of the selection committee does not vote unless there is a tie. A nominee for any of the teaching excellence award categories is not eligible to serve on the teaching excellence awards selection committee.

Members of the selection committee include:

- Representative from the Provost's Office, non-voting.
- One faculty member elected from each college and library
- One recipient of senior teaching excellence award
- Representative from Student Government
- Representative from University Board of Trustees, if possible

Faculty representatives are elected for two-year terms, with representatives from the College of Arts & Sciences, Lutgert College of Business, and the College of Education elected in odd-numbered years, representatives from the other units in even-numbered years.

At the end of each award cycle, the award selection committee should review the nomination, documentation, and award selection process and, if appropriate, present recommendations in writing (with associated recommended revisions to guidelines) to the president of the Faculty Senate, the Office of the Provost, and the chair of any Faculty Senate ad hoc committee charged with reviewing award processes.

Award Evaluation Criteria

The rubric for evaluation is on a 4-point scale ranging from 0-3, where 0 is not evident or NA, 1 is partially evident (marginal), 2 is evident (acceptable), and 3 is fully evident (exemplary). Evidence of the following criteria is evaluated:

- Completion of one full academic year at FGCU in a teaching position
- Demonstrates innovation in teaching
- Demonstrates learner-centered approach to teaching
- Demonstrates growth in teaching over time
- Demonstrates a self-critical approach to teaching practice
- Available to assist students in or out of class
- Supports the teaching mission of FGCU
- Demonstrates respect and concern for students
- Communicates ideas and information regarding the course
- Articulates course objectives and assignments
- Encourages student participation and involvement in learning
- Demonstrates mentoring of peers in their teaching (for Senior Faculty Teaching Excellence Award only)

The Selection Committee reserves the right not to give out a Teaching Excellence Award if nominees fail to satisfy minimal eligibility requirements or if there are fewer than 3 nominees per award category. The Selection Committee has the right to extend the application period in the case that there are less than three nominations. Award nominees must be notified by the committee chair if an award is not given.

Award Announcements

All awards are announced at the Celebration of Excellence and are kept confidential until that time. The winners of the awards will be announced to the University Community via an all faculty/staff email, as well as on the FGCU webpage.

At the end of each award cycle, the award selection committee should review the nomination, documentation, and award selection process and, if appropriate, present recommendations in writing (with associated recommended revisions to guidelines) to the President of the Faculty Senate, the Office of the Provost, and the chair of any Faculty Senate ad hoc committee charged with reviewing award processes. Names of winners who have been decided upon by the award selection committee shall be submitted to the Provost's Office by March 30th.
