Under the provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, you have the right to withhold the disclosure of your "Directory Information."

Please carefully consider the consequences of your decision to withhold "Directory Information." With this decision, you are granting permission for the University to withhold ALL information pertaining to your academic career to all non-institution persons and organizations. Information will also not be published in the FGCU commencement program. However, the University is required by law to release enrollment information to the Department of Education for all students receiving federal aid.

The University cannot assume responsibility to contact you for subsequent permission to release. Regardless of the effect upon you, the institution assumes no liability for any negative outcomes due to withholding such information.

The institution will honor your request to withhold information within one week from the date received in the Office of Records & Registration. Your request will be effective throughout your academic career at the University, unless subsequently revoked in writing by the student through the Office of Records & Registration.
